DATO' ANDY LOW HANN YONG

LL.B (Hons) (Malaya), DIMP

Dato' Andy Low Hann Yong attained his Bachelor of Laws (LL.B) (Hons) from University of Malaya and was subsequently admitted to the Malaysian Bar as advocate and solicitor.

In 2009, he founded Messrs Low & Partners. With his dynamic personality and exceptional vision for the firm, he has progressively expanded the firm to one of the leading law firms in conveyancing, corporate and litigation. Dato' Andy Low is a full fledged practicing lawyer with vast experience in handling matters of conveyancing and property, commercial and banking, and probate and estate administration. He is responsible for bringing in a wide spectrum of clients, notably in the banking, corporate and will-writing industry. Our firm is presently being appointed as the panel lawyers by reputable real estate developer like See Hoy Chan Group and Villamas Group, alongside major banking and financial institutions, and also the largest will writing company in Malaysia, Rockwills Group of Companies as well as Amanah Raya's corporate agents.

Under his sturdy supervision and insightful capacity, he has steadily developed Messrs Low & Partners from a sole proprietorship to a medium sized boutique firm. He has championed the use of information technology and KIV system in the firm's operations to achieve high levels of accuracy and promptness in the delivery of legal solutions to the clientele. Dato' Andy Low, who strongly values quality, cost-effectiveness, efficiency in work culture is also a skilled researcher and is strongly competent in the drafting of agreements relating to sale and purchase transactions, loan documentations and different types of commercial agreements.

As the Managing Partner, Dato' Andy Low's excellence throughout his years of practice - brought on by his insightful leadership and striking ability to understand the commercial needs - has prompted him to be interviewed by a host of magazines, amongst others, Personal Money Magazine published by The Edge Communications for various legal opinions about property sale and purchase Agreements. He is also interviewed by local newspapers including the Star, the Sun and the News Straits Times, expressing his legal opinions over various subject matters. He also appears regularly in TV interviews including ntv7 and Bernama news.
